

b 7.7 Listen to a psychologist giving some tips about how to argue better. Which two general points does she make?

- ☐ Never avoid an argument by refusing to talk.
- ☒ Try to avoid having an argument in the first place.
- ☒ It isn't a bad thing to argue from time to time.
- ☐ Always involve another person to mediate.

c Listen again. Tick (✓) the ones you should say and cross (✗) the ones you shouldn't. Why are they right or wrong?

- ☒ 'Look, you're not doing your share of the housework.'
- ☒ 'I think we should have another look at how we divide up the housework.'
- ☒ 'Sorry, it was my fault.'
- ☒ 'You always forget our wedding anniversary.'
- ☒ 'I didn't mean to shout. I'd rather we didn't argue, but this is very important to me.'
- ☒ 'And another thing: I was really disappointed with my birthday present.'
- ☒ 'I'd rather talk about this tomorrow, when we've both calmed down.'
