

Dear God,

I am writing to apply for the position of Santa Clause, that i found on the pillar on the North Pole.

Recently I have landed a contract with Coca-Cola to be their biggest partner. Also I just hit my 5 years worth of experience with driver's license category D (deers).

As you will see from my CV, I have some relevant experience because I have a long journey in a clown position, so I know how to work with kids. By the way, I am afraid of children, so I will perfectly hide from them: I don't want to face them. As a second job I was a director of a factory, so I will perfectly handle managing elves. The director of the company would be happy to provide a reference. In fact, I am the director.

I am a night person and I'd love to have a flexible schedule. As for my looks I'm 6'5, have flexible body to fit into chimney, and thick snow white ash beard for a canon looks.

I attach a photo of myself in Santa Claus suit for reference and hope to hear from you very soon.

Best wishes,

Mycola Prosto
